

2019 Landscape Maintenance Training

for landscape professionals and home gardeners

at Hawai'i Community College - Palamanui

(1:30 pm to 4:15 pm.)

- 1. Basic Botany and Plant ID (Part 1) – April 5 (Fri.) - Erin Lee (Hualalai Resort)
Review basic plant science; learn characteristics, growing conditions and sensitivities of over 100 tropical landscape plants commonly used in Hawaii.
- 2. Plant ID (Part 2) / Weed ID and Control – April 12 (Fri.) - Diana Duff
Identification slide show of tropical and native landscape plants (cont'd) and common weeds.
- 3. Landscape Plan Reading & Calculations – April 19 (Fri.) - Ken Halverson
Review basic math skills needed for pesticide and fertilizer applications as well as ordering materials.
- 4. Turf Care – April 26 (Fri.) - Chris McCullough (DFI Resources)
Learn about maintaining turf through proper fertilization, aeration, mowing and irrigating.
- 5. Pruning Trees and Shrubs – May 3 (Fri.) - Diana Duff
Learn the basics of maintaining plants through proper pruning techniques.
- 6. Plant and Soil Health – May 10 (Fri.) - Micah Barker (Bio-Scape Hawaii), Ty McDonald (UH)
Learn how to keep plants healthy with proper nutrition and soil fertility.
- 7. Irrigation Basics – May 16 (Thur.) - Mel Palea (Hualalai Resort)
Learn the basic principles and practices of irrigation system maintenance in the landscape.
- 8. Pesticide Use and Safety – May 23 (Thur.) - Cal Westergard (Hawaii Dept. of Agriculture)
Learn about safe and effective pesticide use.
- 9. Insect Pest ID and Control – May 30 (Thur.) - Chris Jacobsen (Department of Health)
Learn how to identify and control insect pests commonly found in the landscape.
- 10. Establishing and Managing a Landscape – June 6 (Thur.) – John Palos (Hualalai Resort)
Learn the best ways to plant, transplant and maintain groundcovers, shrubs & trees.

Series price*: $400 HILA members / $450 non-members

Individual classes: $40 HILA members / $45 non-members

* Registration fee for entire series includes Landscape Training Manual for Maintenance Technicians (NALP)

Contact Ty at tym@hawaii.edu or 322-4884 to register

Registration Deadline – Tuesday, April 2, 2019

LMT Classes offered by Hawai'i Island Landscape Association
University of Hawai'i Cooperative Extension

OTHER LICH TRAINING & CERTIFICATION PROGRAMS (at additional cost):

- 1. Irrigation School – May 31 – June 1. $300 (includes NALP Irrigation training manual)

2. Landscape Industry Certified Technician (LICT) Test – June 13/15; $300/$375